Kansas Teacher of the Year Program

Mission

The mission of the Kansas Teacher of the Year (KTOY) program is to build and utilize a network of exemplary teachers who are leaders in the improvement of schools, student performance and the teaching profession.

The KTOY program, sponsored by the Kansas State Department of Education (KSDE), identifies, recognizes, and utilizes representatives of excellent teaching in the elementary and secondary classrooms of the state.

The KTOY state finalists serve as ambassadors for education in Kansas, making public appearances across the state.

The KTOY is nominated to represent Kansas in the National Teacher of the Year program. The National Teacher of the Year program, a project of the Council of Chief State School Officers, is presented by Voya Financial.

Nominations

Each school district may nominate one elementary classroom teacher and one secondary classroom teacher for Kansas Teacher of the Year.

Principals and superintendents do not submit a nomination entry form identifying their candidate(s) but are required to approve and sign the online application after it has been completed by their candidate(s).

All teachers should have an equal opportunity to be nominated for and selected as the district nominee. The local nomination and selection process should not be biased nor give the appearance of bias.

The local selection committee should be comprised of individuals representing all publics with an interest in education.

School principals and superintendents are encouraged to plan recognition ceremonies honoring their exemplary teachers.

Nominations should be made without regard to age, sex, race, or religion.

Candidates will complete their nominations using an online application program. The nomination questions are detailed in this packet of information so that candidates can begin work on them immediately. The online application program will open Sept. 3, 2025, and will close Nov. 7, 2025.

KANSAS TEACHER OF THE YEAR PROGRAM 2027 NOMINATION

The nominee must be released from classroom responsibilities during the year of recognition as necessary in order to fulfill the obligations inherent in the honor. Every attempt will be made to schedule activities around the classroom schedule.

General guidelines for classroom release time

The Kansas Teacher of the Year will be awarded The Hubbard Foundation Kansas Teacher of the Year Ambassadorship, which will enable the KTOY to devote significant time during the second semester (January-May) to activities that support the mission of the KTOY program.

It is recommended that the school district hire a full-time replacement teacher in order to provide continuity for the students in the classroom during the Kansas Teacher of the Year's absence. The KTOY will be in the classroom when not actively engaged in responsibilities as KTOY Ambassador.

Funds will be provided to pay travel and other necessary expenses incurred by the KTOY during the ambassadorship.

If selected as the 2027 National Teacher of the Year, the nominee must be released from classroom responsibilities during the year of recognition to fulfill the obligations inherent in the honor.

Teachers who have received recognition as KTOY are not eligible for nomination. Those who have been recognized as state finalists in the KTOY program in the previous three years are not eligible for nomination. Teachers who have been nominated in prior years, but did not achieve at least a state finalist ranking, may be nominated the following year.

Selection Process

The KTOY program consists of local, regional, and state competitions. The regions correspond to the state's four U.S. congressional districts.

Regional selection committees will be comprised primarily of education administrators and teachers.

Each regional finalist will receive a $2,000 cash award from Security Benefit in Topeka. They also will be the state finalists for the Kansas Teacher of the Year.

State

KSDE will appoint a state selection committee to select the KTOY from among the eight state finalists. Selection committee members will independently review and evaluate the written nomination forms and videotaped interviews of the finalists.

The state selection committee will be comprised of individuals representing business and industry, legislators, boards of education, education administrators, teachers, higher education institutions, education organizations, parents, and students.
