

REMINDER
Title I
Parent Involvement

Since a new school year has begun, it is a good time to review the Parent Involvement Requirements in the Elementary and Secondary Education Act. The requirements listed below apply to all Title I schools.

- Both the district and all Title I schools must annually review and update the Parent Involvement Policies. A Parent Involvement Policy should include the following at a minimum:
 - Involving parents in developing district/school improvement plans;
 - Assisting school to implement family engagement activities to improve student performance;
 - Assisting school and parents to build capacity;
 - Coordination of parent involvement activities;
 - Conducting, with parents, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of the parental involvement policy in improving the academic quality of the school; and
 - Involving parents in the activities of the school.
- The school policy should address, at a minimum:
 - Convening an annual meeting to describe the school's participation in a Title I Part A program and the right of the parents to be involved;
 - Offering a flexible number of meetings;
 - Including parents in the planning, review, and improvement of the school policy;
 - Providing timely information about parent activities, a description and explanation of the school curriculum, and forms of assessment and expected proficiency levels; and
 - The school-parent compact which addresses the importance of communication between school and home.
- Parent-School Compacts must be signed and kept on file each year.
- Parents of all children in a Title I school must be aware of "Parents Right to Know". Parents have the right to request the following information:
 - Whether the teacher has met State certification and licensing criteria for the grade levels and subject areas in which the teacher provides instruction;
 - Whether the teacher is teaching under emergency or other provisional status through which State certification or licensing criteria have been waived;
 - The baccalaureate degree major of the teacher and any other graduate certification or degree held by the teacher, and the field of discipline of the certification or degree;
 - Whether the child is provided services by paraprofessionals, and, if so, their qualifications; and
 - Whether a child has been assigned to, or has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks by, a teacher who is not State certified at grade and content level.
